General Poſt Office, June 25, 1768.

His Majeſty's Poſtmaſter General, for the further Improvement of Correſpondence, intending to eſtabliſh a Poſt Six Times a Week, inſtead of Three as at preſent, between England and Ireland, both by the Way of Holyhead and Port Patrick, the ſeveral Regulations for that Purpoſe will commence on Wedneſday the 6th of July next.

From that Time alſo the Letters between ſeveral Parts of England and Ireland, which have hitherto been ſent through London, will be circulated directly through the Bye and Croſs Roads; by which Means the Correſpondence between many Commercial Parts in both Kingdoms will be greatly accelerated.

Notwithſtanding the frequent Regulations and Improvements made by the Poſtmaſter General for the Benefit of Correſpondence in divers Parts of Great-Britain and Ireland, it ſtill appears, that vaſt Numbers of Letters are privately collected and delivered contrary to Law, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue: Public Notice is therefore hereby given, That all Carriers, Coachmen, Watermen, Diſperſers of Country News-Papers, Higlers, and all others whatſoever, hereafter detected in the illegal collecting, conveying, or delivering of Letters or Packets, will be proſecuted with the utmoſt Severity.
